PRESENTING THE ARTS FOR YOUR ENJOYMENT & PARTICIPATION SINCE 1993!

Over 125 items were received for the 2023 Jazz Crawl Silent Auction. Nearly all pieces were sold resulting in a record number of sales. Special thanks to Cain's Bridal for the beautiful bouquet and the good wishes for our fundraiser. We again had a cadre of volunteers who helped with selling wristbands, bartending, set up-tear down, and more. Thank you to our generous sponsors, all the silent auction donors/buyers, and to everyone who helped in any way!

"Where Service Counts"

It's amazing just how much equipment the KIDS bring with them as they tour across Wisconsin. Here they are unloading at the Plymouth High School for their Plymouth Show presented by the Plymouth Arts Center.

Special thanks to Meinhardt Orthodontics for sponsoring the KIDS' dinner again this year. Dr. Jason Meinhardt's quote from his website: "I was a member of Kids from Wisconsin in the 2010 and 2011 seasons and continue to support them each year when their show comes to Sheboygan County. Check them out when they come to town if you've never seen a show, you won't be disappointed!"

JUDGE
JOYE MOON

By Joye: My over all impressions of the exhibit was quite favorable. I enjoyed the diversity of the paintings. From different mediums and subject matter, the show was very interesting. Keep in mind that judging an exhibit is only one person's opinion. If I could have given more awards, I would have as there were many paintings that were worthy of an award.

Event Coordinator, Dan Rizzi, and his family & friends.

Best of Show Award Winner
James Hempel, Shorewood

Best of Show: "The View South"
by James Hempel

Judge's Comments: This painting needed to be awarded the top prize because it's just plain beautiful! The panoramic quality and the subtle color and values changes as the painting moves back in space are done to perfection. You can really feel the atmosphere of the day. Excellent work!

Board Member, Dr. Scott Peschke,
