

SUMMER ART CAMPS IN JULY

Grades 5-8
with Liz Higgins

Class times: 10:30 am-12:00 pm

An art project based day camp where each student can explore the process of the art concept selected for each session, to create fun and imaginative masterpieces.

4 Day Camps are $80 ($70 PAC member) per student

Session D: Drawing & Painting

July 8, 9, 10, 11

Students will learn a variety of drawing and painting techniques inspired by our natural environment.

Session E: Printing & Mixed Media

July 15, 16, 17, 18

Students will explore a variety of exciting mediums, creating artwork inspired by nature.

Session F: Sculpture & Mixed Media

July 22, 23, 24, 25

A unique focus on sculptural form and space, students will create 3-dimensional art.

*Students should bring their own water bottle and please provide sunscreen if needed. Some classes will have the opportunity to create art in our outside courtyard, weather permitting.

ABOUT THE TEACHER—

Liz Higgins has a Bachelor's degree in Fine Art from Lakeland University and an Art Education and Adaptive Education teaching certifications from Silver Lake College. She was an elementary and high school art teacher in the Sheboygan Area School District prior to becoming the Education Coordinator at the Plymouth Arts Center. Her interests in nature and science have been a prominent theme in her artwork and photography. She plans to share this passion with her students by providing art experiences that are meaningful and beneficial to the understanding of art concepts and enjoyment of the arts.
