CALL FOR TEACHING PROPOSALS

Plymouth Arts Center is seeking proposals from qualified artist educators for workshops in 2027 and beyond. Our curriculum covers instruction in Painting, Drawing, Jewelry, Sculpture, Mixed Media, Printmaking, Photography, and Lectures. We strive to provide a balanced program that covers technical skills, traditional and contemporary methods and materials.

Critical characteristics for instructors include excitement and passion for teaching. In addition, instructors should be active contributors to their field through participation in exhibitions and/or conferences, as well as teaching and/or giving lectures.

WORKSHOP PROPOSALS SHOULD INCLUDE:

- Description of the specific workshop
- Medium/media used, level of student, days and hours of instruction
- Objective(s) of class, competencies that the students can expect to achieve, final artwork produced (if applicable), and special highlights that set your class apart from others of its kind
- Special equipment needed
- Your resume outlining your qualifications and teaching experience
- Your website or digital images of your work
- What you as a teacher bring to your students that is unique and impactful

Workshop Proposals for 2027 are due by January 1, 2027 or anytime throughout the year for a future class.

Please send proposals to Attention: Education Coordinator, Liz Higgins, Plymouth Arts Center, P.O. Box 253, Plymouth, WI or email to classes@plymoutharts.org
